BY-LAWS OF THE SOUTHEAST BRANGUS BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION
AS AMENDED SEPTEMBER 24, 2021

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this association is Southeast Brangus Breeders Association. (SBBA)

ARTICLE II- OBJECTIVE AND PURPOSES

The objective of SBBA is to unite Brangus Breeders in the southeast to advance our economic, political, and social interests.

Purposes of the association shall be:

- (1) To promote, in any and all ways, interests of Brangus Breeders in the southeast.
- (2) To increase the number of Brangus Breeders, IBBA and SBBA members.
- (3) To do in any and all ways things necessary to advance the prosperity of members of SBBA.
- (4) To serve as a focus for social interests and as a forum for educational programs for members of SBBA.

ARTICLE III - TAX STATUS

This is a non-profit association as provided for under Section 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

ARTICLE IV - PRINCIPAL HEADQUARTERS

The principal headquarters shall be located at the address of the president and the mailing address shall be that of the secretary.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

All active members of the International Brangus Breeders Association in good standing and residing in or having their principal breeding herd primary in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Virginia, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee but may include other states as desired, shall be eligible for active membership in this association upon paying a membership fee in such amount as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of this Association. Each active member shall be entitled to one vote at any regular or special meetings of the membership of the Association. The ranch manager or ranch superintendent of any active member of the Association shall also be eligible for active membership upon payment of dues as prescribed by the Board of Directors. However, if either the employer, the employee, or a spouse holds a position as either an officer or director of the Association, the other shall be ineligible to hold a position as either an officer or director. Anyone ranch or entity shall be limited to three (3) active voting memberships in this Association. All active members of the International Brangus Breeders Association in good standing and residing in or having their principal breeding herd in other states; and any person, firm, or corporation genuinely interested in the objectives and purposes of this Association, irrespective of whether such party be a breeder or owner of cattle, shall be eligible to become an Associate Member of this Association when approved by the Board of Directors upon paying an associate membership fee in such amount as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of this Association. However, no associate member shall ever be entitled to vote at any membership meeting of this Association, regular or special, nor otherwise be entitled to pass upon any of the affairs of the Association. Associate Members are ineligible to hold a position as either as officer or director.

ARTICLE VI- STANDING OF BY-LAWS

The By-Laws of this Association are and shall be always subordinate to the corporate Charter and By-Laws of the International Brangus Breeders Association.

ARTICLE VII- BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Director of Association

The control of the property and business of the Association shall be and same is vested in a Board of Directors composed of twelve (12) active members, or such other number as may be fixed at any duly convened Annual Meeting of the membership.

Section 2 - Terms & Eligibility of Directors

The Directors shall be elected by the active members of the Association for a term of three years or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Directors shall be elected in classes of four (4) each year assuring continuity of membership over time. When any Director has served two (2) consecutive terms, he/she shall not be eligible for re-election as a Director until at least one (1) year after the expiration of the second term. However, serving a partial term shall not apply to eligibility of a Director to serve two (2) complete terms. Regular or special meetings of the Directors may be held at such time as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, upon such notice as shall be provided herein.

Section 3 - Meeting of Directors

Meeting of Directors shall be held annually in conjunction with the annual membership meeting. At such meeting, the Directors shall receive reports of officers and transact such other business as may come before them. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum, and the vote of a majority of those present in person shall constitute a binding act of the Association. Other meetings of the Directors may be from time to time as designated by them. Notice of the Annual Meeting shall be given by the Secretary to all the Directors at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting, but failure of the Secretary to do so will not vitiate any Annual Meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors to be held may be called by the President and in his/her absence by the Vice-President, or by any five (5) members of the Board. By unanimous consent of the Directors, special meetings of the Board may be held without notice, at any time and place.

Section 4 - Vacancies in Board of Directors

Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled at any regular meeting of the members of the Board or at any special meeting thereof called for that purpose. If there is a vacancy in the Board of Directors or any office, the Board may appoint a replacement to serve until the next annual meeting, at which time the Nominating Committee would recommend a replacement for the unexpired term. The Board shall have the power to remove any director, officer, or employee by a majority vote of the Directors.

Section 5 - Absence from Meetings

Failure of any Director to attend meetings for a period of two successive meetings (unexcused), shall be cause for the Board of Directors to declare such office vacant, and said Board may appoint a successor as specified in Section 4 of this Article.

Section 6 - Compensation of Directors

Directors, as such, shall not receive any stated salary for their services.

Section 7 Other Powers

In addition, to the powers and authorities by these By-Laws expressly conferred upon them, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers of the Association and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute prohibited or by these By-Laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the active members.

ARTICLE VIII- MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Section 1 - Time, Place, & Notice

The Annual Meeting of the active membership shall be held at such time and place as may, from time to time, be fixed by the Board of Directors. Notice of the annual meeting shall be communicated to each member of the association at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the SBBA general membership meeting. Special meetings of the active membership may be called by the President from time to time, and special meetings may be had from time to time when called by not less than twenty (20)% of such active members then in good standing; provided that any such call shall be in writing, shall be signed by not less than twenty (20)% of the then active membership in good standing, and that such notification call be presented to and, lodged with the then President or Secretary not less than forty (40) days prior to the date for which any such meeting is so called. Notice of all special meetings shall be communicated to the active membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of any such meeting.

Section 2 - Presiding Officer

The President shall preside at all meetings, if present, but in his/her absence, or failure or refusal to preside, the Vice-President shall preside. In the event the President and Vice-President are absent from said meetings, or fail or refuse to preside, then, the Immediate Past President shall preside.

Section 3 — Voting

At every such meeting, each active member of the Southeast Brangus Breeders Association, in good standing, present in person, shall be entitled to cast one vote.

Section 4 - Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting shall consist of not less than twenty (20) % of all active members then in good standing, present in person. The vote of a majority of those present in person shall constitute a binding act of the Association.

Section 5 - Removal from Office

At any duly convened regular or special meetings of the active membership, at which a quorum is present, any member in attendance shall have the right to lodge a written complaint against any director and/or officer and seek his or her removal. Such complaint shall specify the charges against the person or persons complained of and shall specifically request removal from office and shall be signed by the active member presenting same. Upon its presentation, the presiding officer shall read such complaint aloud, and refer it to the next regular meeting of the active membership for action. At the next regular active membership meeting, such complaint shall be fully presented and acted upon by vote of those present. If two-thirds or more of those present at such regular meeting vote to remove from office the party or parties complained of, each such party shall thereupon stand removed from office.

ARTICLE IX - OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

The officers of the Association shall be elected for a two (2) year term and shall be President, Vice president, Secretary and Treasurer. The Secretary and Treasurer may be the same person at the pleasure of the general Membership. One must be a member of the Board of Directors to be eligible for the office of President and Vice-President. The general Membership shall vote on the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Board may appoint such other officers, agents, and employees as it shall deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board. The salaries of all officers and agents of the Association shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 1 - Executive Committee

The President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and immediate past president shall constitute the Executive Committee. This committee shall meet at stated times, or on notice to all by the President or any two or more of the other members. During the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, such Executive Committee shall represent the Board of Directors in all matters concerning the interests and the management of the business of the Association, and generally perform such duties and exercise such powers as may be directed or delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time. The Board may delegate to such committee authority to exercise all the powers of the Board, while the Board is not in session. This committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors, when required.

Section 2 - Advertising, Public Affairs, and Public Relations

This committee shall be responsible for developing media flow charts (designate advertisement for the year), designing, and distributing advertisements, and coordinating billing with SBBA Treasurer. This committee shall maintain and assist with providing the SBBA promotional booth at any member state Cattlemen's Association convention that requests assistance or other designated shows that may arise. This committee may secure spaces for a booth, order proper literature from IBBA, secure people to staff the booth, set-up and tear-down the booth. This committee shall distribute information pertaining to public relations to the membership of the SBBA.

Section 10 — Southeast Regional Junior Brangus Show

This committee shall plan and execute the annual Southeast Regional Junior Brangus Show. Responsibilities include securing show facilities and hotels, distributing entry forms, compiling show program, ordering trophies/ribbons, securing donations, securing judges, and executing show. All funds collected for entry fees and donations/funds raised shall be deposited in a "Southeast Junior Brangus account" for said purpose. All disbursements related to the show shall come from said account. This committee must maintain an annual balanced budget. Such budget must be submitted to the SBBA for approval and oversight.

Section 11 - Southeast Sales Committee

The manager for the sales conducted under the authority of the southeast sales committee shall not be on the SBBA sale committee, or on the SBBA nominating committee. This committee shall solicit proposals for sales management of all SBBA sponsored sales for selection by the Board of Directors. If the sales management contract specifies that SBBA manages the funds of such sale, the SBBA treasurer shall be included on this committee. This committee shall be responsible for overseeing all sales including selection of cattle, rules of sale, finances of sale, distribution of entries, follow-up after sale and distribution of sale proceeds. All funds collected for consignment fees and proceeds from all sales shall be deposited in a separate escrow account for that purpose. All disbursements related to the sale shall come from that account, thus creating a zero balance at the conclusion.
