The Southeast's Oldest Brangus Bull Sale

Dear Cattleman and Cattlewomen,

Welcome to the Heart of Alabama Brangus and Ultrablack Bull Sale, the oldest sale in the Southeast. This annual sale is sponsored by the Southeast Brangus Breeders Association.

I want to thank all the consignors for putting in a great set of bulls for this year's sale.

This year we moved the sale to a new location but still on the same date. The sale will be held at South Alabama Stockyard in Brundidge Alabama, south of Troy, Alabama. The owner of the Stockyard is Dan Adams and family. Dan can be reached at 334-726-2181. This sale will be broadcast on DVAuction sale day.

If I can be of any assistance to anyone please feel free to give me a call at any time. See you at the sale.

Thank you,

Doug Williams,
Sale Manager

Dear Fellow Cattlemen,

Welcome to the Heart of Alabama Brangus Bull Sale at our new but familiar location at the South Alabama Stockyard. The consignors have once again brought another great set of bulls.

Our consignors have worked really hard getting these bulls ready. There will be registered Brangus and Ultrablacks available for Brangus breeders or commercial cattlemen to purchase. These bulls will add pounds and produce great females. Some of the top genetics in the breed will be offered in this sale.

The sale will be broadcast live on DVAuction, so if your unable to be there in person you can view and purchase online.

Sale starts on Saturday at 1 pm CST, come early and view the bulls to make your selection. The consignors will be available to answer any questions you may have.

If I can help in anyway give me a call!

Thanks,

Jeff Thomas,
Sale Chairman

CARING FOR YOUR NEWLY PURCHASED BULL

Whatever system your bull has been evaluated in, young bulls do require an adjustment period prior to being used for breeding. This is referred by some as a "hardening period." Others refer to it as a "let down" period.

Young bulls, especially those of breeding age, do require attention for continued growth and proper development. Regardless if they are home raised or newly purchased, proper feeding, care and management now will give your bull the opportunity to continue growing and allow him to develop into a sound and profitable herd sire.

Several management practices should be observed when newly purchased bulls are brought home. These practices can help ensure that each new bull has a long and productive future with good productive performance.

- Have an area with fresh water and good quality hay to keep the bull(s) in upon arrival, so they will have time to settle down and become familiar with the surroundings.
- After allowing to drink water and eat hay, you may feed additional energy at approximately 1 percent of body weight.

• If you are planning to turn the bull(s) out with the cow herd upon arrival, bring the herd to a holding area and allow the bull(s) to return to the pasture with the herd.

• Avoid turning your newly purchased bull(s) in with an older bull. We must reduce the chance of injury.

• Consider limiting the number of females you want to settle during the breeding season to 20 the first year.

• Avoid excessive loss of body condition before or during the breeding season. You may want to rest him for 1 to 2 weeks depending on the breeding activity of your herd. If necessary, feed him additional energy if excessive loss in body flesh condition is noticeable. Hay and/or pasture alone will not provide sufficient nutrients to meet the requirements of young, growing, active bull(s).

• If there is one bull in the pasture, as he breeds the cows, record the breeding date. Non-return to heat is a good indication your bull is settling the cows.

• Treat for internal parasites at the end of the breeding season. Provide effective external parasite control as needed.

• Remember, bulls are guaranteed by consignors to be breeders only if they are managed correctly after the sale.

Young bulls should be limited to a minimum number of cows to service. The number is decided by his age. The following guidelines can be used:

Bull's Age.....Number of Females

12 to 15 month	10 to 12
15 to 18 months	12 to 18
18 to 24 months	18 to 25
24 months and older	25 to 35

Place young bulls in well fenced lots before and after breeding season to keep bulls away from cows in heat. There should be shade and plenty of clean water in each lot. Provide free-choice minerals and routinely treat for parasites.

The seller will be entitled to a six month trial following the return of the animal in which to prove the animal is a breeder. If at the end of six months the seller is unable to prove the animal is a breeder, the seller shall be obligated to replace the animal with another of equal value or to refund the purchase price. The return of full purchase price shall in any case be deemed full satisfaction and settlement. If the seller proves the animal to be a breeder, it shall be the obligation of the purchaser to take delivery of the animal at the purchaser's expense.

Seller's Semen Rights: Seller reserves the right to keep a breeding interest in any bull so designated in the catalog or during the auction. In the event the seller elects to collect semen from a designated bull, it will be done at the seller's expense and during such time when the purchaser is not using the bull for breeding.
